A FINE ASSORTMENT

Of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Clothing, Trunks, Traveling Bags, Coffers, and all other articles belonging to the business, constantly on hand and for sale at very low prices, fees does east of the Palmer House, 100 W. BURT KERT.

CHEAPER THAN EVER!

JAMES SULGROVE respectfully announces to his old customers and the public, that he is determined to sell all articles in his line of trade as cheap as possible.

He sold by far the largest quantity in town, in want of SADDLES, BRIDLES, HARNESS, of all kinds, SADDLE and CARRIAGE HORSES, HORSES, or carriages in every shape, and to meet to all his customers' wants. Now manufacturing a set of full Spanish Saddles, a very superior article.

Also just received a select lot of Stirrups, Trees, Bushes, Tack, etc., and a set of leather goods, which will be sold for a very small advance on cost. At his old stand, two doors east of Marion street, Indianapolis.

Persons having leather goods, have all the leather at market prices in my store, or pay me for the articles.

NEW TAYLOR SHOP.

THE subscriber has now in his hands the very best work of the kind, and is prepared to furnish any article of the finest stock of Leather, selected by himself especially for this market. He has now manufactured Boots and Shoes of every quality, and has a large stock of leather, and at such prices as cannot fail to suit. He particularly desires the Attention of the Ladies, that none of their upper garments, so much as shall be worth it, to be supplied to them.

Persons preferring imported Boots and Shoes are informed that he has on hand, and is prepared to supply himself, and his wife, with all the leather goods, and to whom he has some that he cannot recommend as superior to those general sorts. All boots to be placed in bargains, are invited to him, and to buy at a discount, and will be well pleased in showing to all who may wish to examine the same.
